

PSA: Celebrate Culture Days at Beyond the Edge: Artist's Garden

Come celebrate the end of the Exhibition of the land art creations at the Experimental Farm.

Free Admission, Rain or Shine

Saturday, September 27th: Squash Soup Tasting Event – 1-3pm

The first 100 people will enjoy delicious soup made from more than 20 varieties of squash grown from artist Deborah Margo's installation, From Seeds to Soup: Meet the Cucurbita Family. Bread generously donated by Bridgehead Coffee. Look for the large tent near the Red Barn just south of Fletcher Wildlife Centre, off Prince of Wales Drive.

Sunday September 28th: Plant and Planter Sale/Auction – 1-3pm

Healing plants from the Mood Cluster's Exhibition will be auctioned at 2pm. Other items for sale include the planters, the white picket fence and the round bench from the labyrinth.

Closing Ceremony and Pot Luck Supper at the Red Oak Labyrinth – 5-7:30pm

Gather beneath the Red Oak Tree.

5pm – Pot Luck Supper

6pm – Last walk around the Red Oak Labyrinth

7pm – Closing ceremony and dismantling of the Labyrinth

Parking available at Fletcher Wildlife Garden, and on Prince of Wales Drive near the Red Barn.

This exhibition has been sponsored by the Canadensis Botanical Garden Society, the Ontario Arts Council, the Community Foundation of Ottawa and the City of Ottawa.

For more info: www.canadensisgarden.ca

Mary Faught mary.l.faught@gmail.com

Judith Parker judithparker22@hotmail.com

